DETAILED ACTION

Examiner's Amendment

1. An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

2. Authorization for this examiner's amendment was given in a telephone interview with Ryan Massey on April 28, 2005.

The application has been amended as follows:

IN THE CLAIMS:

Claim 19, line 1, delete "18" and insert --15--.

Allowable Subject Matter

3. Claims 1-17, 19-21, and 23-38 allowed.

4. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

Independent claims 1, 23, 24, and 29 each recite, among other features, an electrically conductive adhesive having a glass transition temperature of less than -20°C. EP 1009051, the closest prior art, discloses a number of adhesives, e.g., in paragraphs [0018], [0019], and in claim 7. However, the reference does not teach or fairly suggest that any of these adhesives possesses the claimed glass transition temperature range. Several of the disclosed adhesives are also disclosed in the instant specification in paragraphs [0052] and [0053] as being both high and low glass transition temperature adhesives. Thus, the Tg is not an inherent characteristic of the material. It is further noted that adhesive "System Supreme 10 HTS" is disclosed by the reference in paragraph [0018]. During a conversation on April 8, 2005 with Dr. Brenner of MasterBond, Inc., the manufacturer of the adhesive, it was stated that the Tg of that adhesive is in the range of 125°C. As such, nothing in the EP reference teaches or fairly suggests the claimed Tg range of less than -20°C.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
